Men's All-Americans

RICK HYSER
1983
Wayne, Pa.

During his third appearance at the NCAA Championships, Hyser became WVU's first male All-America swimmer, placing 10th for honorable mention state in the 100-yard butterfly at the NCAA finals in Indianapolis. The Mountaineer team captain and five-time school record holder posted a time of 48.29 in the 100 fly to attain his honorable mention

All-America status.

KREG LEWIS
1986
Towson, Md.

A transfer from national champion Florida, Lewis brought honorable mention All-America honors to WVU in 1986 with his ninth-place finish in the 100 fly at the NCAA Championships in Indianapolis. Earning his award with a time of 47.48, the sophomore helped WVU capture the Eastern team title earlier that year.

NICK DELIC
2006, 2007
Split, Croatia

Nick Delic had a productive 2007 NCAA Championships, earning his first All-America honors as a member of the seventh-place 200 free relay squad. He also earned honorable mention All-America honors, contributing to the 11th-place 400 free relay team, the 16th-place 200 medley team and the 16th-place 400 medley team. Just a year earlier, Delic earned honorable mention All-America honors in the 100 breast with his 13th-place finish at the 2006 NCAA Championships in Atlanta. His second distinction as honorable mention All-America came as a member of the 200 free relay that placed 13th. As only a junior, Delic owned eight school records, three Natatorium records and three BIG EAST records in both individual and relay events.

CHRIS HAGEDORN
2006
Clarksburg, W.Va.

After transferring from national champion Auburn, Hagedorn became a honorable mention All-American in 2006 as a member of the 200 free relay that finished 13th at the NCAA Championships in Atlanta. At the 2006 BIG EAST Championships, Hagedorn captured six BIG EAST titles and set two championship records on his way to being named BIG EAST Swimmer of the Year, a first in West Virginia history.

ANDREW LANGENFELD
2006, 2007
Centralia, Ill.

Langenfeld returned to the NCAA Championships stage in 2007, this time bringing home All-America honors as a member of the seventh-place 200 free relay squad. The sophomore also earned three honorable mention All-America honors with the 11th-place 400 free relay, the 16th-place 200 medley relay and the 16th-place 400 medley relay teams. Langenfeld made his first championship appearance at the 2006 NCAA Championships in Atlanta as a true freshman. Earning honorable mention All-America honors as a member of the 200 free relay that finished 13th, Langenfeld also competed in the 50 free, 100 fly and 400 free relay.

PABLO MARMOLEJO
2006, 2007
Mexico City, Mexico

A versatile swimmer with many proven strokes, Pablo Marmolejo made his second straight appearance at the NCAA Championships in 2007, traveling to Minneapolis, Minn., and earning honorable mention All-America honors with his 16th-place finish in the 200 fly. Marmolejo first took home honorable mention All-America honors in the 200 fly with his 13th-place finish at the 2006 NCAA Championships in Atlanta.

KYLE WILLIAMS
2006
Hazlet, N.J.

A staple of the Mountaineer relay teams, Williams garnered honorable mention All-America honors as a member of the 200 free relay that finished 13th at the 2006 NCAA Championships in Atlanta. The junior was making his first NCAA appearance.

TONY CISNEROS
2007
Garden Grove, Calif.

A fast swimmer with a ferocious free stroke, Cisneros made his first appearance at the NCAA Championships in 2007 as a sophomore and earned honorable mention All-America honors as a member of the 11th-place 400 free relay squad. Cisneros set two school records and one BIG EAST record while at WVU.

KEVIN DONOHUE
2007
Wakefield, R.I.

After spending a year at Northwestern and Rhode Island, Donohue transferred to WVU in 2006 and quickly found his groove with the team. He became the first-ever men's swimmer at WVU to earn All-America honors in an individual event for his fifth place showing in the 100 breast at the 2008 NCAA Championships. At the 2008 BIG EAST Championships, he captured two first-place finishes in the 100 and 200 breast events. Both were automatic qualifying times to the NCAA Championships as well as school and meet records. In only his first season, Donohue competed in the 2007 NCAA Championships, contributing to the 16th place finish of the 200 medley relay team and earning honorable mention All-America honors. Donohue also won the 100 breast at the 2007 BIG EAST Championships. At the end of his career, Donohue owned two conference championships records, two school records and one Natatorium record.

ZOLTAN POVAZSAY
2007
Dunakeszi, Hungary

Povaszay stormed on to the collegiate swimming scene his freshman year at WVU, winning 29 events throughout the course of the season. Povaszay took to the 2007 NCAA Championships pool as a true freshman and earned All-America honors with the seventh-place 200 free relay team. He also earned honorable mention All-America honors with the 11th-place 400 free relay squad and the 16th-place 400 medley relay squad. Just three weeks earlier, Povaszay won six events at the BIG EAST Championships, garnering BIG EAST Male Swimmer of the Year honors, only the second Mountaineer ever to do so. After only one year at WVU, Povaszay owned six school records and one conference record.

IVAN TOLIC
2007
Zagreb, Croatia

After just three months of competition as a Mountaineer, Tolic earned All-America honors as a true freshman, contributing to the seventh-place 200 free relay team at the 2007 NCAA Championships. A brilliant back-stroker, Tolic also earned honorable mention All-America honors leading off the 16th-place 200 medley relay team and the 16th-place 400 medley relay team. Tolic set three school records in his career at WVU.

MICHAEL WALKER
2009
Bridgeport, W.Va.

Walker earned honorable mention All-America honors in the 400 IM with an 11th-place finish in his first career NCAA Championships. Walker finished the race in a time of 3:44.89, a new school record. Walker joined Chris Hagedorn as the only other native West Virginia WVU swimmer to earn All-America status. The four-time BIG EAST qualifier won the 400 IM at the BIG EAST Championships in 2008 and 2009, both school and meet records. Walker is considered one of the most decorated Mountaineer swimmers of all time.

JARED GOLDTHORPE
2011
New South Wales, Australia

After competing in the NCAA Division I Men's Swimming and Diving Championships, Goldthorpe was named an honorable mention All-American for his 10th-place finish in the 200 back. At a record setting pace of 1:42.17, Goldthorpe set a school record and became the first male swimmer at WVU since 2009 to earn All-America status.
